16-Jan-12 20:37 | sfinnega

#edchatie Common sense SHOULD prevail... @johnmayo Do teachers need training in SM

16-Jan-12 20:37 | brighidcannon

#edchatie the good is that a lot of teachers are finding an online community full of useful information and tools.

16-Jan-12 20:37 | Tubzjnr

Teachers are as liable to make Social Media faux pas as much as their students #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:38 | johnmayo

@johnmayo they need guidelines...perhaps a policy #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:38 | charlontweets

@johnmayo (2 of 2)Teachers don't like to make mistakes in public & SM = VERY public #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:38 | fboss

RT @CuffeL: Teachers need to know risks and benefits. Social media are contrary to a lot of data protection and privacy thinking #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:38 | johnmayo

@Tubzjnr agreed! Ecning Is the best resource for english #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:38 | brighidcannon

#edchatie The problem with SM courses is that a lot of teachers don't fully understand what SM means, even tho they may already be using

16-Jan-12 20:40 | seomraranga

#edchatie my rule - don't put anything in the public domain if you wouldn't want your mum to see it! (or your employer for that matter!)

16-Jan-12 20:40 | catrionalane

Bringing policys to teachers use of social media may over complicate it for students wishing to engage. #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:40 | Tubzjnr

Alternatively what you put on line you need to stand over it #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:41 | johnmayo

#edchatie Safe Internet Use also needs to be taught in conjunction with showing teachers SM.

16-Jan-12 20:42 | seomraranga

#edchatie Facebook Groups are a great way to share info between students & teachers without breaching privacy boundaries

16-Jan-12 20:42 | ronan_doherty

@levdavidovic Its the internet anything could be out there! #edchatie more serious concern exclusion of digitaly disavantaged

16-Jan-12 20:42 | CuffeL

16-Jan-12 20:44 | johnmayo

Can most teachers still access twitter through SBN? #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:48 | johnmayo

@Tubzjnr Thinking more on that too -> Is it the teacher's job/role to oversee their students' use of Social Media? #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:48 | fboss

#edchatie My 1st class pupils love Twitter, @mrquinnsclass and love to write about what we're doing in class. They also love mentions!

16-Jan-12 20:49 | seomraranga

Problem now that there is two networks in school -1 the school controls and the 2nd is the one provide through mobile phones #edchatie

#edchatie And is it personal use of SM or exploitation of SM to teach?

16-Jan-12 20:49 | sfinnega

Hello to everyone following #edchatie! Just watched the FSL YouTube video - outstanding effort!

16-Jan-12 20:50 | rjnicolson

@fboss @seomraranga Thanks guys, gotta say that is was Kilkenny Ed Centre for me to teach it, and there seems to be a demand4it #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:50 | TippTeacher

#edchatie I was recently advised by a union not to tweet or blog about any teaching issues in general - errr no!

16-Jan-12 20:50 | leeandrewdunn

@fboss @tubzjnr think Thats practically Impossible #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:50 | brighidcannon

#edchatie best advice I ever got regarding SM if you're not prepared to see it on the front of the Irish Times, don't put it on the internet

@ronan_doherty Im with you on that! #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:52 | 7MJB

@fboss Definetly not, students would be accountable for their actions. This is where closed Facebook groups would be best used. #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:52 | Tubzjnr

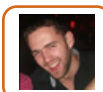

@leeandrewdunn advised not to the general idea is to keep the knowledge in the silo's in case it gets used up? #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:52 | CuffeL

#edchatie We've also got a Twitter A/C for our class bear @RussRansboro where he Tweets about his visits to pupils' houses.

16-Jan-12 20:53 | seomraranga

@johnmayo haha many do, but I've only been here six months, that advice came from the auld sod #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:53 | ronan_doherty

Silly auto correct! I meant 'hi all,'not Nial. #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:53 | TippTeacher

@charlontweets Personal tweets about students, school etc should be but yet we allow teachers to access personal email inschool #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:53 | johnmayo

@johnmayo Great idea - students could take a close look at the Wikipedia article on their town, for example & add local knowledge #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:53 | fboss

@fboss #edchatie Thanks, they think they know you personally at this stage!

16-Jan-12 20:53 | seomraranga

16-Jan-12 20:54 | 7MJB

@Tubzjnr The problem there though is that most teachers try to guide their students and set them on the right road in advance #edchatie

#edchatie do many have in school access to youtube?

16-Jan-12 20:57 | bcuneen

RT @seomraranga: #edchatie I think the Twitter Art Project we did last year was a great example of positively using SM in the classroom. +1

16-Jan-12 20:57 | fboss

Its a pity the social network with the most potential for schools, google plus is not yet open to second level #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:58 | conpower

@AndrewManson1 I like the legal test, but its a little UK centric, taking pictures of celebs in public can be illegal in France #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:58 | CuffeL

16-Jan-12 20:59 | leeandrewdunn

A couple of conversations I had at BETT related to digital literacy, we need to teach it rather than wall it away from classroom #edchatie

16-Jan-12 20:59 | johnmayo

Is <http://t.co/ALRbCrtv> considered SM? #Edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:00 | charlontweets

16-Jan-12 21:01 | 7MJB

16-Jan-12 21:01 | TippTeacher

@conpower Google+ has now re-vamped search to include Your World -search has gone social, so maybe teachers will have no choice #edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:01 | fboss

@charlontweets One side of me would argue yes other side would argue no #edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:02 | johnmayo

@brighidcannon There's a lot of You Tube filters out ther such as <http://t.co/gYYNhIZk> to hide the distracting ads, etc... #edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:02 | fboss

@johnmayo Tell me more!!! #edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:03 | brighidcannon

@fboss #edchatie in the case of google plus it is google themselves that restrict the use based on age.

16-Jan-12 21:03 | conpower

@johnmayo #edchatie Yes teach road safety rather than just keep them locked in the garden

16-Jan-12 21:03 | CuffeL

#edchatie YouTube in the classroom has great potential but great care needs to be taken especially with other video suggestions in sidebar.

16-Jan-12 21:03 | seomraranga

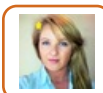

But are many teachers are aware of the filters? Those connected thru SM can find out other have to be lucky to find out #edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:03 | johnmayo

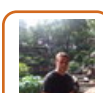

@Tubzjnr Definitely - always a balancing act and I would guess that a lot of teachers want to stay of the high-wire that is SM #edchatie

16-Jan-12 21:04 | fboss

Is having a fantastic read of the #edchatie timeline with my teacher alter ego @TippTeacher

16-Jan-12 21:04 | MoloneyKing
